Our Services & Fees

Background – The Purpose of this Document

It's great that you are considering taking advantage of our services. Before we complete any work for you there are some things that we want to tell you about our services and how we will charge for them. You can use this document to decide whether our services are right for you.

Please take the time to read it - it only takes a few minutes, and it contains important information about our services. Please tell us if you need any extra help or support in accessing our services.

Are our services regulated?

Yes – most of what we do is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. However, services relating to most Buy to Let Mortgages aren't regulated. You can see full details of how we're regulated and what permissions we hold in Section 1.

Our services relating to residential mortgages and protection are also covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme. The scheme does not cover services in respect of Buy to Let mortgages or for services provided to larger businesses. You can also find more details about the compensation scheme in Section 1.

What kind of service do we offer?

We offer advice on mortgages, life and health insurance products.

For mortgages we make recommendations from a broad and comprehensive range of lenders from across the market.

For most life and health insurances, we make recommendations from a range of insurers which is based on a fair analysis of the whole market. For Buildings and Contents insurance and for more specialist insurance products we offer advice from a smaller number of insurers or from a single provider.

You can see details of our range of products, which providers we use and further details about our services in Section 2. This includes information on special advice situations such as taking further advances/ additional borrowing and advice on mortgages in later life.

There are sometimes limitations to our advice. For example, if you're a mortgage customer and you're using a government shared appreciation, or shared equity scheme (or similar arrangements) to help you buy your property, then we won't advise you on whether that scheme is right for you. We don't give tax advice. Section 2 also gives more information about this.

Any products or services offered by an introducer are entirely optional. Your access to our mortgage and/or protection advice services is not conditional on you purchasing, considering, or using any products or services provided by an introducer.

What do we charge for our services?

For insurance products we will receive commission from the product provider. We won't charge separate fees for these services. For mortgages we may charge you a fee for our advice. You can see more details about our charges in Section 3.

What if you have a complaint?

We hope that you'll love the services we provide. But if something does go wrong, then we'll work hard to put things right. You also have access to our complaints procedures. If you are still not happy when we respond, then you may be able to refer your case to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). You can see more information about our complaints procedures and the types of cases that FOS can consider in Section 4.

How will we handle your personal data?

We'll keep your personal information private and confidential, even when you are no longer a client.

As part of our service, we may make electronic checks with third parties such as Credit Reference Agencies to verify your identity and also for fraud prevention purposes.

You can see full information of how we will handle your data in our separate Privacy Statement. We can provide you with a copy of this or it can be accessed via our website.. You can see more information about data privacy and electronic checks in Section 5.

Section 6 contains information about how we manage conflicts of interest and our procedures relating to client money.

The FCA does supervise firms who advise or arrange Consumer Buy-to-Let mortgages. However, the regulatory protections offered in respect of Consumer Buy-to-Let mortgages are limited. A Consumer-Buy-to-Let Mortgage is a buy-to-let mortgage held on a property that was originally your home (or inherited) and is now rented. This may also apply if a part of the property was rented/lived in by your immediate relatives.

The documentation that we provide will tell you whether any mortgage that we are recommending is a Consumer Buy-to-Let.

The Financial Services Compensation Scheme

We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if we cannot meet our obligations. This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim.

2. Our Services

What type of service do we offer?

We provide an advised service. This means that we will assess your needs and make a personal recommendation for each of the mortgage and/or insurance areas in which you have asked us to provide a service.

We act for you and not the insurer or the mortgage lender in connection with the services we provide.

Our advice is based on your circumstances at the time the advice is given.

Our recommendations are based on our understanding of current legislation, which is subject to change.

Whose products do we offer?

Insurance

Use for Personal Protection – panel We offer products from a range of insurers for: term assurance, family income benefit, non-investment whole of life assurance, critical illness insurance, income protection insurance. The range of insurers is based on a fair analysis of the relevant market.

Mortgages and Buy to Let Mortgages

We offer a comprehensive range of first charge mortgages from across the market but not deals that you can only obtain by going direct to a lender.

We do not offer advice in relation to regulated second charge mortgages however we can make a referral to a suitable firm to discuss your needs.

You can ask us for a list of our mortgage providers, or they can be found on the Primis website www.primis.co.uk/consumer-zone. Please note there is a separate list for borrowers who live in Northern Ireland.

Are there any limitations to the advice we are providing?

Our advice is limited to providing advice on appropriate mortgage, protection, and/or insurance solutions from our range of providers and lenders.

We do not provide tax advice. If you are in any doubt, you should seek appropriate advice on any tax implication of the transactions that you enter.

Where you are making use of government schemes (for example right-to-acquire or transactions which involve the Help-to-Buy scheme) or other shared appreciation or shared equity schemes, our advice is limited to the regulated mortgage contract. Our advice does not include advice on the suitability of other schemes.

When recommending life insurance we might sometimes suggest you consider placing a policy into trust. Where we do so, we are providing general guidance of the benefits of trusts and/or information on routes for placing your policies into them. We are not providing a specific recommendation about whether any individual trust is right for you. You should take specialist trust advice if you are in any doubt.

Increasing borrowing on an existing property

If you are seeking advice for increasing the borrowing secured on a property which is subject to an existing mortgage, we will consider whether you should:

- take a further advance/additional borrowing from your current lender
- take out a new mortgage with a different lender

We will not consider second charge loans or personal loans. In some circumstances, these options might be available and appropriate for you. We do not offer advice on second charge loans or personal loans however we can introduce you to other firms to discuss your needs.

Borrowing into retirement

We can offer advice on a number of products where you are considering borrowing on an interest-only basis into your retirement.

Where you are borrowing on this basis, a Lifetime Mortgage might be more suitable option for you than traditional mortgages. A Lifetime Mortgage is a type of loan which doesn't need to be repaid until you die, sell the property, or go into long-term care. The interest is usually rolled up into the loan instead of being repaid each month.

We don't offer advice on Lifetime Mortgages however we can introduce you to an appropriately qualified adviser if you wish to consider this option.

Your duty to provide full and accurate information

It is your responsibility to provide full and accurate information to us and to any product provider or lender that we might recommend.

Failure to disclose material information could invalidate any recommended insurance or could result in a mortgage application being declined.

We rely on the information you have disclosed to us. We cannot be held responsible for any consequences arising from the information held on your file becoming inaccurate as a result of changes that you have not told us about.

3. Our Fees and Charge

What are our Fees and Charges?

Insurance

We will not charge you a fee for our services relating to insurance, but we will receive commission from the product provider. The commission will be calculated as a proportion of the premiums paid for the insurance product.

You will receive a quotation which will tell you about the fees and charges relating to any insurance policy that we recommend.

Mortgages

We will charge a fee for our advice service which will depend on what mortgage you need, your financial circumstances, and the complexity of what you want. The amount of fee will be between £0 and £399.

You need to pay the fee when you apply for the mortgage. Any fee paid is non-refundable.

We will also be paid a procuration fee by the lender. You will be told how much this is when we give you the mortgage illustration. You can ask in advance the percentage (of the loan) each lender will pay us.

If an application is submitted via a third party specialist (sometimes called a packager) we will be paid commission by them instead of the lender. This will be disclosed to you.

Circumstances might occasionally arise where we consider that these procedures will not be sufficient to ensure, with reasonable confidence, that the risks of damage to your interests will be prevented. In these cases, we may not be able to act for you or we may ask for your express consent to continue to do so. Where our procedures would allow us to act, we will clearly disclose the following to you in writing before we undertake any business for you:

- a specific description of the conflict of interest that has arisen;
- the risks to you that arise from the conflict of interest;
- confirmation that we do not consider that our normal organisational and administrative arrangements are sufficient to mitigate these risks.

Our disclosure will provide sufficient information to enable you to make an informed decision about the risks to you and whether you should proceed with the service.

Customer service

It is vital that you fully understand the advice and documents given to you. If there is anything which might prevent this from happening, or may act as a barrier to this occurring, such as your health or another situation, please let us know as soon as possible. Such information will be held in strict confidence. Depending on the circumstances, we will endeavour to ensure our service will be personalised so that you receive the best possible experience in our dealings. For instance, we can provide any documentation in a variety of formats to assist comprehension or arrange for a 3rd party of your choice to attend any meeting if this would help.

We are continually striving to maintain a high standard of service for all our customers so during our advice process we (our network Primis) will email you to seek feedback on our service and the advice provided.
